Der Fuehrer Welcomes New Soviet Envoy

This picture, which was approved by the German censors, shows Adolf Hitler, chancellor of Germany, talking with Vladimir Dekanov, in the new Reich chancellery, shortly after Dekanov had presented his credentials as the new ambassador from Soviet Russia to Germany. The German leader is at cordiality.

Among the boys of this county who hang up the U. S. Army Service, we have below a response from one who likes the Army and finds time for writing back home. Located at Fort Bragg, N. C., he takes a show with the pen and describes his duties:

MILITARY POLICE
"Hawkhaw"
Here's to all of Port Bragg and all of the U. S. A. To all of you and all your friends. These words I'd like to say: We're glad the "M. P." Hawkhaw is working as hard as anyone. Through weather, rain or snow. We guard the U. S. Buildings. We do the best that's in our power. Of nights in snow and rain. While in the bed you lay.

We work on eight-hour shifts. And then off twenty-four. Ready for eight hours more. If you wish to sign up, let me know. The soldiers think the "M. P." are the worst in the land. But if they followed us daily they'd wear a different band.

Walking the post eight hours. As is someone as can be. If you wish to sign up, let me know. I am sure you'd agree with me. We try to keep law and order. And direct traffic too. We do the best that's in our power. So what more can we do?

If all of you do what we do. And after you are done. I'm sure you agree with all "M. P." And "Hawkhaw Hamilton."

—Wiley F. Hamilton, M. P.
Henry Ford says U. S. should be supplied to help and replace them. They are both exhausted, and then step in and make a "just" peace.
